

Amicorp Group specialises in business and knowledge process outsourcing with entity management services. Amicorp provide in collaboration with trusted business partners private wealth and estate planning as well as corporate asset, and project finance structuring. They deliver responsive administrative, fiduciary and corporate structuring services to a broad range of corporate and high net worth clients as Swiss company with an international network of offices. Henry Hollingdrake, as director Amicorp Africa region was former, now current treasurer of the South-African Nigerian Chamber of Commerce which was launched May 2005 as a non-profit organization created for the promotion, facilitation and assistance of Nigeria-related business. SA-NCC was the second African bilateral chamber in a growing family of Chambers, and has been recognised by the Intergovernmental Committee of Experts of the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa - Southern African centre as a best private sector practice in the promotion of regional integration. For more information visit:

www.amicorp.com | www.sa-ncc.co.za
