

Mr Theunis De Beer

*Mr Henry Hollingdrake | Director at AMICORP
South Africa & Former President | current Treasurer of the South-African Chamber of Commerce*

MultiTel is a fourth generation communications company, specializing in the delivery of a-z communications systems and solutions. Communication is the cornerstone of every society, MultiTel are passionate about delivering communications solutions to the corporate environment while offering innovative solutions and attractive offerings to the end user. They enable communities with both fixed line voice and data telecommunication solutions, delivering solutions on a national scale to some of the largest multi nationals in South Africa enabling connectivity via fixed line, 3G services, microwave, satellite and VPN. MultiTel hosts cloud based solutions that includes: mail services, fax services, sms services, security and antivirus services, hosting, domain management etc., a complete full set off cloud ISP services working with 400 strong partner base throughout the African continent inclusive of best all round enterprise management solution for technology deployed in corporate and government environments. These services enable e-governance as well as remote services and solutions for the education and health environments.

www.multitel.co.za